

Open Forum: Panel Discussion

February 23, 2016

Open Forum: Panel Discussion

We believe that having better coordination of development of national codes, standards and regulations would help diminish the trend of adopting the lowest common standard from other jurisdictions and better protect the public.

Open Forum: Panel Discussion

We believe that having better coordination of development of national codes, standards and regulations would help diminish the trend of adopting the lowest common standard from other jurisdictions and better protect the public.

What can Engineers Canada do to realistically accomplish this?

